

OFFROUTE ART NEWSLETTER

EL CENTRO X OFFROUTE

Offroute is thrilled to announce our partnership with Affirmative (Re)Action, a podcast produced by El Centro Productions. Each week this podcast analyzes classic and contemporary pieces of theatre. In their own words: Affirmative (Re)Action is a critical theatre pod from a BIPOC theatre squad. Each episode culminates with the question (and answers to): should this piece of work be produced today?

Since digital art is ever-popular, particularly during the pandemic, Offroute is excited to connect artists with the opportunity to design unique covers for each episode. Artists are given a small commission to design two covers at a time. To the right is our first collab cover, featuring original work by Isabel Adolphe.

KNOW A SCHOOL OR GROUP WHO MIGHT WANT TO LEARN MORE ABOUT HOW TO GET INVOLVED WITH OFFROUTE?

Offroute has been creating a new virtual info session for groups, clubs, classes, etc. to help more people learn about Offroute and how they can get involved--whether it's selling their own art; volunteering; having their work promoted by us; and so forth. For more information about the info session or to schedule one, please email offrouteart@gmail.com
