MARCH 2021 | ISSUE 17

OFFROUTE ART NEWSLETTER

VOLUNTEER

Volunteer with Offroute! Your time to be spent creatively, efficiently, and purposefully We are looking for support in several areas, but current priorities are for Art Critique volunteers and a Pittsburgh-based Arts Liaison. Click here to check out our volunteer page!

OFFROUTE'S AFFORDABLE ART STORE

Want to know more about the rationale behind the Affordable Art Store? If you have 3:13 minutes, check out our latest video, featuring advice for to new artists on what to consider when pricing their art for the first time! Click HERE for the video.

MARCH TRIVIA MADNESS!

Okay, so no brackets, but there are several opportunities to join us for trivia this month!

March 6: AmeriCorps Alums Trivia Night. Celebrate the beginning of AmeriCorps Week 2021! This trivia night is open to all AmeriCorps alums, current AmeriCorps members, AmeriFriends, and the Offroute community. Sponsored by AmeriCorps Alums CT. RSVP HERE.

March 13: Offroute Trivia Night - Ice T / Iced T Night. Offroute's regular trivia night. Hosted by Kjerstin, jams by DJ Kimmy. RSVP HERE.

New art from Porter Kaboly (Pittsburgh, PA) in the Affordable Art Store!

March 20: Fundraiser for The Explore-It-Torium, a children's museum in Marion, OH. If you missed out on last year's Golden Girls Trivia Night and want to support a great organization, sign up HERE!

If you are in Pittsburgh, check out our latest display at the 61Z in Hazelwood! (above). And thank you to everyone who joined us on Valentine's Day at Kente Royal Gallery in collaboration with the Harlem Creative Society. (right)